MAAM P-61 BLACK WIDOW RESTORATION FUND DONATION #16444

The Mid-Atlantic Air Museum needs approximately another 1.2 million dollars to complete the restoration of what will be the only flying P-61 'Black Widow' in the world. We desperately need your help.

You can read all about the historic MAAM P-61 Recovery and Restoration Project on the 'Widow's Web': <http://www.maam.org/p61.html>

YOUR DONATION IS TAX DEDUCTIBLE - MAAM IS AN IRS RECOGNIZED 501 (c) (3) CHARITABLE ORGANIZATION.

You may donate in $5 increments - just select the multiple in the Quantity box. To encourage your generosity and express our thanks, we have special gifts for donors of $50 or more:

At the $50 DONATION LEVEL, you will receive a P-61 Black Widow Recovery and Restoration Team Certificate, suitable for framing as our thank-you gift.

At the $100 DONATION LEVEL, In addition to the certificate, you will get a souvenir piece of P-61 aircraft skin from P-61B "42-39445". This skin, approximately 4 inches square, was removed during restoration and is certified by the Museum to be a piece original to the aircraft. Finally, your name will be engraved on the P-61 "Sponsor's Wall" in the Museum.

At the $500 DONATION LEVEL, in addition to all the gifts above, you will receive a resin-cast, hand-detailed 1/72 model of a P-61B.

At the $1000 DONATION LEVEL, in addition to all of the gifts above, you will also receive a framed, limited edition P-61 print by David Lee Sample.
